Police Crime Report

For the Week Ending – October 2, 2016

Tips of the Week:

The Rockville City Police Department would like to provide parents with a few tips to help prevent their children from becoming a victim of cyberbullying.

What your children need to know:

- Never give out personal information online, whether it is in instant messaging, chat rooms, blogs or personal websites.
- Never tell anyone (but your parent) your password. (This includes not even telling friends.)
- If you receive a mean or threatening message, DO NOT RESPOND. Save it or print it out and show it to your parents.
- NEVER open e-mails from someone you don't know or from someone you know is a bully.*
- DO NOT PUT ANYTHING ONLINE THAT YOU WOULD NOT WANT YOUR CLASSMATES OR PARENTS TO SEE.
- Do not send messages when you are angry. Before clicking "send", ask yourself how you would feel if you received the message.

Since most cyberbullying takes place at home, parents can help protect their children from cyberbully by following these few simple tips:

- Keep your home computer in a busy area of the house.
- Set up e-mail and chat accounts with your children. Make sure that you know their screen names and passwords and that they don't include any personal information in their online profiles.
- Regularly go over their instant messenger "buddy list" with them. Ask who each person is and how your children know him or her.
- Print out a list of commonly used acronyms in instant messenger and chat rooms. This information can be obtained by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children's website (www.missingkids.com). In the search field type "acronyms".

Help us help you, by staying safe and not becoming a victim.
